

RECRUITS

BEING SOUGHT IN PADUCAH FOR U. S. NAVY.

Opportunity Offered for Young Men to Enlist in Service as Seamen.

A United States navy recruiting office opened this morning at 302 Broadway. The party is in charge of Lieut. J. H. Comfort, assisted by Medical Examiner W. H. Block, Chief Yeoman Fred Myers and L. M. Deal, of the hospital corps.

Young men are enlisted as apprentice seamen at the ages of 17 to 25 years, at $16. Upon enlistment they are transferred to a navy training station, where they are given preliminary training of four months, being taught seamanship, knotting and splicing, swimming, sewing and care of their clothing exercised in sailing and pulling boats. They are taken on short cruises lasting from two to five days, and give them a fair idea of what a sailor's life is. While at the station ample time is given for recreation.

Visiting parties are made up to visit any battleships and cruisers of the Atlantic fleet that may be in the vicinity. There is a fine library at the station for those of a studious nature, there is also a store. After four months they are promoted to ordinary seamen at a monthly wage of $19, and their conduct warranting are given a furlough of ten days exclusive of the time necessary to go to and return from their homes. When they return from their leave of absence they are transferred to a receiving ship where they are detailed for duty on one of our battleships or armored cruisers, promotion depending entirely upon their own efforts.

Besides apprentice seamen, young men from 21 to 35 years of age having trades, such as holtermakers, machinists, electricians, plumbers, blacksmiths, carpenters, firemen and stenographers are enlisted with wages ranging from $30 to $70 per month. Young men from 18 to 39 years of age are also enlisted in the hospital corps with wages of from $20 to $60 per month. The office will be open from 9 to 5 daily.

Claim Notice.

McCracken Circuit Court, C. A. Isbell, plaintiff, vs. petition in equity, F. G. Rudolph, administrator of Addie Howell, deceased, etc., defendants.

Ordered that this action be referred to Cecil Reed, master commissioner of McCracken Circuit Court to take proof of assets and liabilities of the estate of Addie Howell, deceased, and all persons having claims against said estate are required to properly verify and file the same, before said commissioner, on or before the 8th day of December, 1906, or they will be forever barred from asserting any claim against the assets in the hands of F. G. Rudolph, administrator of said estate unadministered; and all persons are hereby enjoined and restrained from collecting their claims against said estate except through this suit. Ordered that this order be published in the Paducah Daily Sun as required by law.

Given under my hand as Clerk of said court, this, the 11th day of October, 1906.

J. A. MILLER, Clerk.

By R. B. Hay, D. C.

J. W. Egester, Attorney.

LITTLE GRAY

WAS REALLY A LITTLE BROWN AND NOT A LITTLE FAIRY LIL.

Possessor of Operatic Name Answers to Two Warrants in the Police Court.

Lillian Russell, not she of operatic fame, but a dusky damsel, was presented in police court this morning charged with using bad language towards Vanetta Hall. The case was continued. Following her entry on the docket came the name of Little Gray and again did Lillian present herself before the court. This time a malicious cutting charge was read. "Lillian, you seem to have a surplus of names," the court remarked, "and I guess I will give you until Wednesday to secure witnesses in this case."

She is charged with "knifing" Mitchell Wilson on September 28. Other cases: Will Smith, colored, charged with cutting Georgia Spicer, examination waived and held over; Herman Powell colored, disorderly conduct, $25 and costs; Aline Hare, disorderly conduct, $10 and costs.

Decently and in Order.

The traditional American way, the traditional English way, of dealing with abuses, evils, injustices, is to remedy them by better laws, by better methods of administration, by the selection of better men for office. The process is not one of sudden impulse, not one of revolutionary change. It is sometimes exasperatingly slow. It requires patience as well as energy, careful thought as well as determination and zeal. It offers little excitement to those who do the work and does not present to the nation at large much satisfaction as a dramatic spectacle. But slow as the process may be and otherwise deficient in soul-stirring quality, it has the great recommendation of being pursued in accordance with standards that are based in sober thought and that have been tested by experience.—Baltimore News.

Could Take His Choice.

At a recent inquest in a Pennsylvania town one of the jurors, after the usual swearing in, arose and with much dignity protested against service, alleging that he was the general manager of an important concern and was wasting valuable time by sitting as a juror at an inquest.

The coroner, turning to his clerk, said: "Mr. Morgan, kindly hand me 'Jervis' (the authority on juries). Then, after consulting the book, the coroner observed to the unwilling juror:

"Upon reference to 'Jervis' I find, sir, that no persons are exempt from service as jurors except idiots, imbeciles and lunatics. Now, under which head do you claim exemption?"—Success Magazine.

Not Easy to Stop Work.

Jim Hill, who has just negotiated the Great Northern ore deal, involving something like $400,000,000, tells the reporters that he now proposes to retire from active business. He's getting close to the Psalmist's allotted limit of life, he says; he wants to get time to read a book or two, and he has no desire to die with his boots on. And yet Mr. Hill will find it the most difficult thing in the world to lay down the tools of his trade, tilt back in his chair and take things easy. He isn't built that way. The prospect doubtless allures him, but idle, he would be the most wretched of men. He is a great deal more likely to wear out than rust out.—Hartford Times.

Colored Conference.

The West Kentucky Conference of the C. M. E. church in America will convene in Paducah next Wednesday at 9 a. m. in the husbands church with Bishop Isaac Lane D. D., presiding. At 7:30 o'clock J. W. Egester will deliver the welcome address, response by the Rev. T. J. Moppin of Hopkinsville, on Thursday at 3 p. m., the Lane College Girls' Dormitory society consisting of one hundred will report, each paying one dollar for the rebuilding of the same. C. W. Meriwether has been invited to make the presentation speech on account of the illness of the Rev. J. W. Hawkins.

Mrs. Austin's Famous Pancakes. Really delicious.

FACTS IN NATURE.

Not Only Do We Get Inspiration From Nature, But Health as Well.

For people who are run-down and nervous, who suffer from indigestion or dyspepsia, headache, biliousness, or torpid liver, coated tongue with bitter taste in the morning and poor appetite, it becomes necessary to turn to some tonic or strengthener which will assist Nature and help them to get on their feet and put the body into its proper condition. It is becoming more and more apparent that Nature's most valuable health-giving agents are to be found in forest plants and roots.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. R. V. Pierce, now consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., discovered that by scientifically extracting and combining certain medicinal principles from native roots, taken from our American forests, he could produce a medicine which was marvelously efficient in curing cases of blood disorder and liver and stomach trouble as well as many other chronic or lingering ailments. This concentrated extract of Nature's vitality he named "Golden Medical Discovery." It purifies the blood by putting the stomach and liver into healthy condition, thereby helping the digestion and assimilation of food which feeds the blood. Thereby it cures weak stomach, indigestion, torpid liver, or biliousness, and kindred derangements.

If you have coated tongue, with bitter or bad taste in the morning, frequent headaches, feel weak, easily tired, stitches or pain in side, back gives out easily and aches, belching of gas, constipation, or irregular bowels, feel flashes of heat alternating with chilly sensations or kindred symptoms, they point to derangement of your stomach, liver and kidneys, which the "Golden Medical Discovery" will correct more speedily and permanently than any other known agent. Contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients printed in plain English on wrapper.

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make a little more profit. He gains; you lose. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

Constipation causes and aggravates many serious diseases. It is thoroughly cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. One a laxative; two or three are cathartic.
